

Planning for Change - APBS 2013 Reflection Journal

Slide 11

	of effective educational leadership, I think of	of these practices:
VATI- our Labe	······································
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	x of these practices:
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	κ of these practices:
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	x of these practices:
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	x of these practices:
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	x of these practices:
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	x of these practices:
When I thi	ink of effective educational coaching, I thinl	κ of these practices:

Slide 16

• In what ways are leadership and coaching currently integrated in my system?

• What "could" the reciprocal relationship of leadership and coaching "look like" at my site with respect to implementing MTSS?

Slide 28

• What elements about this problem solving process are consistent with how data are used for decision making at my site?

What aspects of this problem solving process need to be further developed at my site?

Slide 36

• How confident am I that my local "site" is using a common structured problem solving process? Is this important for my site?

 What elements of what comprises an integrated "data system" are consistent with how a "data system" is understood at my site?

> What aspects of the reciprocal relationship between leadership and coaching need to be further developed to support effective problem solving at my site?